of labour is measured in terms of compensation of employees paid in the form of wages and salary to Net Domestic Product (NDP) at the current prices. The contribution of labour to the Net Domestic Product at Current Prices increased from 33.8% for both skilied and unskilled labour during 1993-94 to 36.5% during 2004-05.

(c) As per 61 st Round of National Sample Survey, about 2% received formal vocational training and another 8 per cent reported to have received non-formal vocational training in the age group of 15—29 years.

(d) Approach paper to 11th Five Year Plan emphasizes the need to expand vocational training from the present capacity of mere 2 to 3 million to at least 15 million new entrants to the labour force.

Unemployed educated youths registered in employment offices

3770. SHRI SU. THIRUNAVUKKARASAR: Will the Minister of LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT be pleased to state:

(a) what is the State-wise break-up of unemployed educated youths registered in employment offices in States; and

(b) What are the steps taken by the Central Government to address the problem of unemployment among both the educated and uneducated youths?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT (SHRI OSCAR FERNANDES): (a) Total number of educated job seekers including youth, all of whom may not necessarily be unemployed, registered with Employment Exchanges in the country as on 31-12-2005 was around 28 million. State-wise details are given in the Statement (See below).

(b) The Approach paper to The Eleventh Five Year Plan envisages creation of 70 million new work opportunities. This is for both educated/ skilled and unskilled unemployed including youth. In order to tackle the problem of unemployment among both educated and uneducated persons including youth, Government is attempting employment generation in the normal growth process of the economy as well as through special employment generation programmes. The special programmes include Swamajayanti Gram Swarojgar Yojana, Sampoorna Grammeen Rojgar

Yojana, Pradhan Mantri Gram Sadak Yojana, Prime Minister's Rojgar Yojana, Swarna Jayanti Shahari Rozgar Yojana, etc. Besides these, Government is also implementing National Rural Employment Guarantee Scheme in the 313 identified districts of the country, which provides for at least 100 days of guaranteed wage employment in a financial year to every household in the rural areas whose adult members volunteer to do unskilled mannual work.

Statement
